THE
South-Carolina Gazette.
August 29th, 1754. [NUMB. 1054.]

LONDON, May 7.

THE Ruſſians are ſo thoroughly ſenſible of the danger to which the common cauſe would be expoſed from the ſucceſs of the diabolical intrigues of one European ſtate, and the ambitious deſigns of another, that the Czarina has made the moſt ſolemn declarations at certain courts of her intention of going beyond the engagements ſhe has entered into, upon the firſt hoſtile motions that are made by thoſe two courts.

The Toulon ſquadron will divide in a certain latitude, one part of which is to maintain the dignity of the French flag in the Mediterranean and Levant, and the other to ſail to Cape-Breton, where there are already 6 ſhips of the line.

May 11. If the erecting fortifications on ſome of the keys in the Bay of Honduras was permitted, we ſhould be able to protect ourſelves there, 'till the long conteſted right of cutting logwood was determined. This connivance is practiſed by other European powers, all over North America, and the Weſt Indies, tho' they make no ſcruple, after having thus ſecured their own ſubjects, and annoyed their neighbours, of denying at their reſpective courts, that they have any knowledge of what has been done.

May 16. Eaſt-Friezland, at this important juncture, will be ceded to Pruſſia for ever; and the electorate of Hanover will be enlarged by ſome neighbouring imperial diſtricts, and the other territories in diſpute will be guaranteed by Pruſſia to his Britannick majeſty.

We are informed by letters from Flanders, that a ſcheme is on foot, which will certainly be carried into execution this year, for digging a new canal at Dunkirk, from the end of that made laſt year acroſs the road, in order to join the canal from St Omers, which comes to the upper end of the harbour above the baſon, where two new ſluices are to be fixed.

May 20. The French extend their territories in North-America at the back of all our ſettlements, from New-England; and their attempt at the Ohio is to facilitate their approach nearer to the ſea; which, if not checked in time, muſt cut us off from a moſt valuable branch of traffic, and make all the Indian nations our enemies, who forget paſt ſervices, and ſide with thoſe from whom they derive the greateſt preſent advantage.

CHARLES-TOWN, August 29.

On Monday laſt died, of a Mortification, occaſioned by the cutting of a Corn, the ingenious ALEXANDER GORDON, Eſq; Clerk of His Majeſty's Council in this Province; which Office, we are informed, is now in the Hands of William Simpſon, Eſq.

We hear, that the Virginia Forces under Colonel Waſhington, that were in the Action of the 3d of July, are not to bear Arms againſt the French on the Ohio, for the Space of a Year; that the French have two Virginia Officers as Hoſtages; that Mr. Joſeph Lloyd, a Cadet in the Independent Company that was ſent from hence, had been dangerouſly wounded, but was likely to do well; that that Company had acquired great Honour in the Action; — and ſome Particulars which we do not chooſe to publiſh before we have further Accounts.

The Negro who was gibbetted at Beaufort, for the Murder of Mr. Charles Parry, did not die before laſt Thurſday, and 'till within an Hour before he expired, conſtantly declared his Innocence; but at laſt confeſſed, that he himſelf had perpetrated that Murder, and at the ſame Time diſcloſed a Scene equally ſhocking, in which he and 8 other Negroes were to have been concerned, viz. the Murder of two other Gentlemen at Beaufort, on the Night after Mr. Parry's Death, (which only the finding of his Body had prevented;) after which they were to have taken a Schooner in the Harbour, belonging to Mr. John Smith, and in her put to Sea in the beſt of their Way for St. Auguſtine.
